

Dance Bio of Tyger-B

Best known as TygerB.com for 100+ wins in global competition, inspiring young and fellow achieved artist in person on four continents, reaching viral status several times, representing multiple countries in multiple styles of dance, achieving several awards and career recognitions in film festivals, teaching at two universities, creating several murals in the United States, writing a book, choreographing and dancing for artist like Raven Symone, Ginuwine, and more, and open concerts for artist like Ne-Yo, Snoop Dogg, Tank, Tyrese, Beyonce, etc, the artistic powerhouse of Tyger-B is a recognizable one.

The international artistry of Tyger-B is known for his colorful stage presence, his battles around the world, dedicated mentality, and level of knowledge in his fields. Teaching dance workshops in the styles of Dancehall, HipHop, Salsa, Bachata, TopRock, Locking, Popping, and House, Tyger-B has shared his lessons and capabilities on solo and group tours in over 10+ countries, while uplifting upcoming notable dancers to keep reaching past every level presented. Personal motivations like these have led Tyger-B to invite countless international teachers and performers to showcase their crafts at his workshops and in his events; adding to his large dance family, one amazing human at a time. With the Continuously rising success of his brand, TygerB.com, Tyger-B has been dedicated to influence the next generations two break records, assuring all to continuously put their best foot forward.

Outside of his love and career in dance, Tyger-B finds time to paint murals across the world, partakes and organizes festivals, partaking in acting gigs like his roll in recording artist Madison Ryan Ward's "Mirror" music video, and is hired by many as marketing manager for content creation.

Other dance highlights from Tyger-B Include:

Choreographer for 5 Recording Artist

Dancer For 9 Recording Artist

4 Solo Dance Tours in China

2 Solo Dance Tours in Russia

Has Competed and Won on 4 Continents

8+ Years of Tours, Competition Judging, and Workshop in Canada

Graduate at The University of the Arts, School of Dance